

INTERIOR DESIGN®

MAY 31
2019

what a looker!
spring market tabloid

FABRIC & WALL covering

Rachel and Nick Cope with Philippe Malouin
of/for Calico Wallpaper

Rachel Doriss and Pollack Studio of Pollack

David Rockwell
for Jim Thompson

Gabriel Hendifar
for Pierre Frey

product The Color and the Shape standout A collage-like Matisse-inspired installation of hand-cut felt, Tyvek, canvas, mesh, and printed-silk forms the designers created for last year's Design Miami proved so impactful the company decided to offer the concept as a customizable wall covering program. calicowallpaper.com

product Nature Lab standout The designer and team explored water, blossoms, birds, and other natural wonders to create the collection of six textiles including cotton-linen True Horizon, rayon-nylon Breezy Point, rayon Songbird, and cotton-rayon Botany. pollackassociates.com product Misty Forest standout For a scenographic backdrop, look no further than the design giant's forest-in-the-fog dreamscape, a sisal grasscloth (in three colorways) from the aptly named Atmosphere collection. jimthompsonfabrics.com

product Isfahan
standout From the Act III collection celebrating the Apparatus creative director's Persian origins comes a neo-geo update of Khatam-style marquetry perfected in the viscose-polyamide's namesake city. pierrefrey.com